

Our client is a large holding company, with headquarter in New York and offices in Moscow, Hong Kong, Malta, Minsk, and Casablanca, operating online projects in the social networks, with recognizable worldwide brands caliber booking.com or LinkedIn. The company's capitalization: ~ $ 1milliard. Turnover in 2014 $ 170mln, profit $ 45mln. The growth in the past 3 years - 20% per year Shareholders are immigrants from Russia, ala Sergey Brin (Google) - now live in New York and want to create in Riga a global financial center for the whole group.*

For these purposes are seeking:

GROUP ACCOUNTANT

Main responsibilities:

- Work with our outsourced accountants for Latvian, Malta and Cyprus companies
- Prepare accounting documents
- Receivable and payable control
- Communication with clients and suppliers
- Prepare internal management reports for Group companies (Latvia, Malta, and Cyprus)

Main requirement

- B.Sc. or M.Sc. level degree in finance or accounting
- Knowledge about international tax legislation(Malta, Cyprus, UK, Latvia)
- Fluency in Latvian, English and Russian languages
- Good communication skills
- Good team player, also able to work independently

- High sense of responsibility, well organized approach
- Ability to meet strict deadlines with accuracy
- The IT systems and related skills
- Big four experience is advantage

We offer:

- Interesting, responsible and dynamic job in an international company
- Social guarantees
- The salary 2000 Euros net / month
- All necessary training and technical support
- Professional growth and international career development opportunities

If you meet these requirements, please send your CV to the email cv@pelicanleadersearch.com

We will contact only candidates invited to an interview.